

Final infoletter no.5
The KROSSS course 5th-11th September 2010

KROSSS

Dear participants at the KROSSS course in September 2010

Just another ten days to go and we will meet. We are really looking forward to meeting you all. This is the final letter before meeting and we have some few things we wish to inform you about in addition to the four infoletters you have got earlier.

1. Samir Singh has mentioned that there is a possibility to get tickets for those who wish to see the football game Arsenal-Bolton in the afternoon of Saturday 11th. But before Samir does anything more could those of you who would like to go to the game please contact Samir directly on his e-mail before 1st September and then he can see what he can do:
ssingh@arsenal.co.uk

2. Samir also wishes to know which kind of school you would like to visit, primary or secondary (see infoletter no.4). As it is the first week of the new school year we may have problems with school visits, but Samir will try his best to get this in order.

3. Could those of you coming from the same country please contact each other about:
a. the Market Place – see infoletters no.3 and 4.
b. From the program you will see that each country is asked to present something. Each country has 15 minutes and you are free to present what you wish. It could be about your own education system, but we would appreciate if you focus on the issue of racism in schools, sports and society in your country. We have had such presentations at many of our courses and evaluation has proved that this has been a very popular part of the program.
Some countries have several participants at the course, please contact each other before coming to decide what you want to present about your own educational system to the others and who is doing the presentation. There is, of course, technical equipment available so Power Point presentations are fine.

4. When one visits London many wish to go to a musical. As a group it is possible to buy tickets to a musical at a fair price, e.g the Queen musical “We will rock you” for £ 27. The course cannot afford to pay for the musical, but if you are willing to pay yourself we will reserve the tickets. Wednesday 9th Sept. evening seems to be the best choice. Do you want to go to the musical? If so, please send the answer to Gert Larsen gert.larsen@albertslund.dk not later than Sunday the 29th. August and he will do the booking.
